The Statewide Elections Committee met at noon on Friday, May 25, 2007 to discuss the Contract Advisory Election. The problem has arisen that some members did not receive the Official Ballot Envelope due to an error that occurred in the third party mailing house who was contracted to mail the ballots.

The Election Committee discussed and formally adopted the following position:

For this election let it be known to the membership that if a ballot is received in the Business Reply Envelope without the Official Ballot Envelope, provided that it meets all other criteria of an acceptable ballot (per ASEA Policy and Procedure 22.00.000), that the vote will be counted.

If a member chooses to enclose the ballot in their own envelope to insure confidentiality, and then places that ballot in the Business Reply Envelope, provided that it meets all other criteria of an acceptable ballot (per ASEA Policy and Procedure 22.00.000), that the vote will be counted.

If a member did not receive or would like a replacement Official Ballot Envelope or a replacement Ballot Package please contact ASEA Headquarters at 907-277-5200 or 800-478-2732.
