KETCHIKAN STUDENT WINS AFSCME FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

Ketchikan High School senior Aimee Mc Clory has won an AFSCME Family Scholarship Award. She is the daughter of ASEA/AFSCME Local 52 member Emily Torio Saura-McClory.

Aimee wrote an essay entitled "What AFSCME Has Meant To Our Family," in which she writes that at age 17, she already knew about AFSCME's impact "as the nation's most powerful, effective union." She states in her essay that AFSCME has affected her mother's life significantly, and has allowed her mother to focus more on the professional demands of her job as a Public Health Nurse.

Aimee believes that she and her family have benefited in a number of ways from her mother being a member of AFSCME. Aimee learned about the AFSCME Family Scholarship Award by reading her mother's copy of the AFSCME Public Employee magazine, which is one of the benefits that have affected her directly. By winning this scholarship, she is just a little closer to achieving her dream to graduate collage and pursuer a career in the health care industry.

Congratulations to Aimee for winning an AFSCME Family Scholarship!
