ELECTION NEWS

The Election Committee certified both the Run-Off Election for the Executive Board seats, as well as the Election for the nine (9) non-officer delegates that will represent ASEA/AFSCME Local 52 at the 38th AFSCME International Convention in San Francisco on July 28-August 1.

Delegates to the 38th AFSCME International Convention will be voting to elect all of AFSCME's International Executive Board members, which include president, secretary-treasurer, and 32 vice presidents. Delegates will have an opportunity to participate in workshops, caucuses, and work on key policy resolutions and Constitutional amendments. This year being a Presidential election year, AFSCME President Gerald W. McEntee and Secretary-Treasurer William Lucy will be asking the 6,000 AFSCME attendees to get involved and to help mobilize more members than ever before to win this Presidential race.

Listed below are the duly elected delegates that will represent you at the convention, also listed below is the current State Executive Board with the newly elected winners in bold.
