2022-2023 SCHOLARSHIP ESSAY QUESTIONS

(Please ONLY answer one question)

1. What do you think is the greatest threat to our Union's strength today?
What could you do or have you done to mitigate this threat?
2. Tell us about your most important role model, and why you look up to that individual? ** (Avoid mentioning first and last names of people who are personal family members or individuals in your personal circle in the essay. Applicants may use names of celebrities and public/historical figures). **
3. Since the COVID-19 pandemic, it has been difficult to interact and engage with members. What are some ways to increase participation with the members while adhering to safety measures and protocols?

Note: Essays will be judged less on length than on content, spelling, grammar, and how directly and completely the answer reflects the question. Personal examples and source citations are encouraged. The expected length is approximately 500 words, but there is no penalty for longer essays.
