Midnight Sun Chapter

Makes Donation

Midnight Sun Chapter President Bill Hunt presented Beth Vonnahme from Hospice of the Tanana Valley with a $250 check as part of their Summer Community Drive.

Midnight Sun Chapter

Community Drives

This summer the Midnight Sun Chapter will be working on several community projects.

The first is a collection of personal hygiene products for the homeless shelter. Please start saving items for both men and women.

The second project in August, will be a blood drive for the Fairbanks Blood Bank. The Chapter is looking for volunteer coordinators for their respective offices.

If you are interested in being a volunteer coordinator for either project, please contact Bill Hunt at william.hunt@alaska.gov.
