National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial

By: Chuck Stewart

On May 13th, the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial held their 28th Annual Candlelight Vigil in Washington D.C. The Memorial honors officers who have died in the line of duty. (Photo: picture of the wall ready for the Candlelight Vigil)

Two hundred fifty-two (252) (names will be added to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Wall next month. Out of those 252 names, 112 were officers who died in the line of duty last year. This Memorial is dedicated to Law Enforcement Officers, Correctional Officers and Probation & Parole Officers.

I had the privilege of attending the Candlelight Vigil Ceremony with about 25,000 peace officers to show our respect to those that had fallen in the line of duty. I also had the honor of viewing the names of Alaska State Troopers Gabriel "Gabe" Rich and Sgt. Patrick "Scott" Johnson who died in the line of duty on May 1, 2014 and were placed on the Memorial Wall in 2015 and Tage Brandel Toll, whose name was placed on the wall in 2014.

If you ever get a chance to visit Washington D.C., please stop by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial located on "E" Street N.W., between 4th and 5th Street, to honor our fallen officers.
